

Southwest Pickers Presents

Chance McCoy and the Appalachian String Band

Thursday Evening, April 16, 2009

Playing fiddle is Chance McCoy, a master in the art of mountain fiddling. Hailing from West Virginia, a state known for its rich and long standing music tradition, Chance is well known for his powerful fiddling which has earned him many blue ribbons, including the coveted West Virginia Championship.

The guitar player is Danny Knicely. Danny is a fourth generation Appalachian multi-instrumentalist from a Virginia family, steeped in mountain music tradition.

Visit <http://www.myspace.com/chancemccoy> to hear samples of the band's music.

Date: Thursday, April 16, 2009
Time: 7 PM to 9:30 PM
Admission: $10/members $ 15/general
Location: Covenant Presbyterian Church
9315 Candelaria, NE, Albuquerque, NM
Phone (505) 298-5589
Email inquiry@siliconheights.com
Tickets available at the door.
No advance ticket sales.
Arrive early for the best seats!

Banjo virtuoso Adam Hurt will join the group and also play a few solos. At age 25, Adam has already placed in or won most of the major old-time banjo competitions including Clifftop, Mount Airy, and Galax, and won the state banjo championships of Virginia, West Virginia and Ohio, as well as the state fiddle championships of Virginia and Maryland.

Aimee Curl plays bass and performs harmony vocals. From Loudon County, Va. , Amy combines her sound with a sultry style that you won't want to miss.

Two Workshops Available:
Clawhammer Banjo (Adam)
Old Time Fiddle (Chance)
Intermediate/Advanced Level
Wednesday, April 15
7 - 9 PM ($ 30.00)
Call 298-5589 to register